

Announcement:
Alpha & Omega Institute Launches
PACCT (Police and Concerned Citizens Together) Initiative: A Model for Saving Lives!

PACCT

Building a bridge of goodwill between police officers and citizens of diverse heritages!

Because of the national outcry against abusive policing, Alpha & Omega Network also launched the PACCT (Police and Concerned Citizens Together) Initiative. In 2014! Left to right are: Rev. Eric “Duke” McCaskill congratulates Chief Steve Drew, NNPD after his wearing in ceremony. Middle: PACCT in action in Aqueduct Public Housing. Rev. Duke and officer Gholson sharing with children before delivering groceries to their families. Right: Rev. Duke, Officers Mr. Gholson and Mrs. Everett delivering groceries to the first resident, Ms. Talaya Green. The residents were happy to see police “armed” groceries and virtues In other words, “Police Prime!”

Right: The PACCT Initiative in action at RVP Christmas & Police Presence with Presents. Left: Ashanti, RVP Alum joins Revs. Duke & Duchess in expressing thanks to the NNPD for their generosity in Aqueduct. Acting Capt. Bartley accepts on behalf of NNPD (North).

Rev. Duke leading a PACCT session with police officers and youth at Aqueduct apartments. Acting Capt. Molly Bartley, Lt. Smith and Sgt. Calhoun have and exchange with youth. Asst. Chief Randall and officers share at CAPP/PACCT Police Presence with Presents.

Alpha & Omega Institute for Family Preservation

13813 Warwick Blvd., Bldg. BC, Suite 3, Newport News, VA 23602

www.aonet.org 757-719-1723